Gil Brock BE

Gil Brock is the originator of the most widely used software program to design reinforced and post tensioned concrete namely RAPT. He commenced writing this program in 1980 and has constantly updated and improved the program over the past 25 years. This evolution including making the program Windows based, a user friendlier version than the original DOS program. It is now used by many structural design engineers overseas and as such Gil has designed the program to satisfy many overseas concrete standards such as those used in the USA (ACI318) and the UK (BS8110) as well as in countries such as India, Malaysia, Singapore and China.
